

Project Based Learning: Participation Rubric

Student Objectives:

1. You will choose a project that you are interested in and enthusiastic about and you will stay focussed and on task while completing your project.
2. You will show evidence of planning during each step of your project. You will do research, testing and prototyping to guide your planning.
3. You will be safe at all times while working on your project. You will be respectful of other students while sharing space and materials. You will treat project materials with care and you will not be wasteful with supplies.

	Not Meeting Expectations	Approaching Expectations	Meeting Expectations	Exceeding Expectations
Enthusiasm and Interest	You demonstrate little interest in your project and are often off task.	You demonstrate some interest in your project but are sometimes off task.	You usually demonstrate interest and enthusiasm in your project and are usually on task.	You are very enthusiastic about your project and are always on task.
Planning	You don't have a plan for completing your project. You spend most of your time in class doing things that are not related to your project.	You start with a plan but you don't stick to it or update it. You spend some of your time in class doing things that are not related to your project.	You use planning to manage your time, and to break your project into easy steps. You update your plan when needed.	You make a have clear and detailed plan to break your project into steps. You update you plan often along the way.
Respectfulness and Safety	You are often careless or wasteful with materials. Often, you do not show respect for classmates' space or property. Your actions are often disruptive to the learning environment. You often do not follow safety instructions.	At times you have been careless or wasteful with materials. At times you do not respect classmates' space of property. Your actions are sometimes disruptive to the learning environment. You sometimes ignore safety instructions.	You usually respect the space and property of others. You treat learning materials with care. You contribute positively to the learning environment by aware of others. You usually follow safety instructions.	You respect the space and property of others. You treat learning materials with care. You contribute positively to the learning environment by being helpful and aware of others. You always follow safety instructions.
Self Directed Learning	You usually rely on classmates or the teacher to solve problems for you and to move your project forward.	You often get stuck and are unable to move forward without assistance from others.	You often solve problems on your own but sometimes need help from others to move forward.	You independently try many different problem solving steps to move forward when you are stuck.